RULES OF THE 14th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT COMMITTEE OF THE GEORGIA REPUBLICAN PARTY

Article I. MEMBERSHIP AND PARTICIPATION

Section 1.01 QUALIFICATIONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN PARTY ACTIONS

- (a) All electors who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, believe in its declaration of policy and are in agreement with its aims and purposes may participate as members of the Georgia 14th Congressional District Republican Party. Hereafter referred to as the 14th District.
- (b) All Chairmen and members of committees, delegates to conventions and voters in mass meetings, provided for in these Rules, shall be members of the 14th District and must be electors of the respective units which they represent as Chairmen, members, delegates, or voters in mass meetings.

Section 1.02 PUBLICATION OF QUALIFICATIONS

The qualifications and conditions for participation in the 14th District shall be published in all official calls for mass meetings and conventions called pursuant to the GRP Rules and pursuant to the Rules and Call of the Republican National Convention and Georgia Republican Party Rules and Convention Call.

Article II. DISTRICT COMMITTEE AND ORGANIZATION

Section 2.01 DISTRICT COMMITTEE

- (a) There shall be a committee officially known as the “14th District Congressional Republican Committee”, or designated as the “District Committee” or “14th District Committee,” which shall be the governing body of the Republican Party of the 14th District in the interim between District Conventions.
- (b) There shall be an Executive Committee of the 14th District, which shall have the power to transact the administrative business of the 14th District Republican Party pursuant to these rules and the direction of the 14th District.
- (c) While in session, the 14th District Committee shall be the governing body (except while the District Convention of the 14th District is in session) of the 14th District, which is a political organization and political party. While in session, the 14th District Committee shall be vested with all the duties, power, and privileges possessed by the District Convention and the 14th District Executive Committee. The 14th District Committee, while in session, shall act for the 14th District.
- (d) No person may hold more than one voting position on the 14th District Executive committee or 14th District Committee.
- (e) Voting Restriction. Any voting member of the 14th District Committee who has a paid or consultant position with a primary campaign for a federal, state or local candidate shall not participate in decisions of the 14th District with regard to the solicitation, transfer, donation or spending of funds.

Section 2.02 RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

The Georgia Election Code refers to “Election Districts” as “Precincts.” Only electors of the precinct, in the 14th District, may serve on the respective committees.

Section 2.3 CONGRESSIONAL REAPPORTIONMENT

When Congressional Districts are reapportioned, these Rules shall be deemed amended, so that the officers and members of the Congressional 14th District for the Congressional Districts which result from the Reapportionment shall be determined as follows:

- (a) The highest ranking officer who, on the date the new Congressional District became legally effective, was an officer of a Congressional District Committee and who is an elector in the new Congressional District, shall serve as temporary presiding officer for purposes of convening a meeting of the 14th District as provided in this Section. In the event that there is more than one officer of the same rank, the convening officer shall be determined (1) by the ranking officer whose delegates represent the majority in the new District, or (2) if the majority cannot be determined, the convening officer shall be determined by drawing lots.
- (b) The Congressional District Committee shall consist of Committeemen who, on the date the new Congressional District was determined, were serving as committeemen of a Congressional District Committee, and who are electors of the new Congressional District.
- (c) The Congressional District Executive Committee shall be likewise constituted as set out above, substituting the term “District Executive Committee” for “14th District Committee.”
- (d) The Congressional District Committee shall meet upon ten (10) days’ notice to its members to elect officers of the Congressional District to serve until the next odd numbered years Congressional District Convention.

Section 2.04 DUTIES OF 14TH DISTRICT COMMITTEE

- (a) The 14th District shall make arrangements in each odd-numbered year and each Presidential Election year for the purpose of holding a District Convention consistent with GRP Rules and the State Call.
- (b) In the event of controversies, other than those involving the election of National Convention delegates and alternates, originating within the District GRP organization, petition shall first be made to the 14th District by filing with the District Chairman, setting forth the particulars of the controversy. Said petition by at least five (5) qualified Republican voters shall be filed with the District Chairman no later than thirty (30) days from the date of the alleged event giving rise to the controversy. The petition shall be heard by the G14CDRP within forty-five (45) days following receipt by the District Chairman. For each case referred to it, the 14th District shall make a report of its findings and decision to the parties involved not more than forty-five (45) days from receipt of the appeal. Appeals of such 14th District decisions may be made to the State Committee within thirty (30) days from the date of said decision, if signed by twenty-five (25) qualified Republican voters of the District. Said appeal shall then be heard by the State Committee as provided in GRP Rule 6.3. Said petition shall be filed with the State Secretary at GRP headquarters.

- (c) The 14th District shall hear any appeals arising from a County Committee fully within the district, with the right of petition to the State Committee. Appeals from County Committees to the 14th District shall be investigated by the 14th District Committee by reviewing appropriate documents and written representations from the parties involved in the dispute, which may include a stenographic record, testimony and other evidence. The 14th District may hold hearings if it deems necessary. For each case referred to it, the 14th District shall make a report of its findings and decision to the parties involved not more than forty-five (45) days from receipt of the appeal.
- (d) The 14th District shall cooperate and assist with all partisan Campaigns within the District after the primaries have been held or if only one Republican has qualified for an office they may assist prior to the primary.
- (e) The 14th District shall cooperate with the State Committee in conducting all statewide campaigns within its District boundaries, National and State causes and otherwise aid the State Committee in other efforts, where practical.
- (f) The 14th District shall have such other functions as assigned by the State Committee. The 14th District may provide in its rules for a District Executive Committee with powers as provided in its rules.

Section 2.5 STATE MEMBER ALLOCATION

State Committee members allocated to the District as prescribed per the Georgia Republican Party Call shall be allocated as follows:

- (a) One State Committee member shall be allocated to each County in the District, as recommended to the District Nominating Committee by the County Chairman.
- (b) The remainder of the State Committee member district allocation should be divided with one State Committee seat allocated in each of the following ways:
 - (i) Region 1: Dade, Catoosa, Whitfield, and Murray

Article VII. ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS: PROCEDURE FOR FILLING VACANCIES

Section 7.01 ELECTION OF OFFICERS, AND NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATES AND ALTERNATES

- (a) In odd numbered years, the District Convention shall elect the District officers and the State Committee members.
- (b) In Presidential Election Years, the District Convention shall elect Delegates at Large and Alternates at Large to the Republican National Convention in accordance with Rule 7.2.
- (c) The election of officers by a 14th District Convention shall be conducted in the following manner: First, the entire report of the Nominating Committee shall be made. Then the Nominating Committee's nominee shall first be placed in nomination and then nominations shall be accepted from the floor for each position. If more than two candidates are nominated for the same position and no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, there shall be a run-off election between the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes. In each election, debate shall be permitted. Debate may be limited, although no candidate in a contested District Officer's race shall be limited to less than five (5) minutes for the office of Chairman and two (2) minutes for all other offices (including nominating speeches).

(d) The election of State Committee members by a 14th District Convention shall be conducted in the following manner: First, the entire report of the Nominating Committee shall be made. The report shall include each nominee's county of residence. Then the Nominating Committee's nominees shall first be placed in nomination and then nominations shall be accepted from the floor.

1. Each person nominated from the floor shall state the Nominating Committee's nominee being challenged.
2. A nominee from the floor shall only challenge a nominee nominated by the Nominating Committee from the floor nominee's county of residence.
3. If there is no Nominating Committee nominee from the floor in the nominee's county of residence, then the floor nominee shall challenge a nominee from a county where the Nominating Committee has two (2) or more nominees.
4. If more than two candidates are nominated for the same State Committee position and no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, there shall be a run-off election between the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes. In each election, debate shall be permitted. Debate may be limited, although no candidate shall be limited to less than two (2) minutes including nominating speeches.

Section 7.02 ELECTION OF NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATES

(a) In accordance with the GA GOP Rules, the Call of the Republican National Committee and as allowed by the Georgia Presidential Preference Primary Act, as amended, the Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention shall be elected from the Districts at the respective District Conventions shall be bound to vote for the Presidential nominee elected in the Georgia Presidential Primary, as provided in the Georgia Presidential Preference Primary Act, as amended. (See O.C.G.A. § 21-2-190, et seq.)

(b) Specifications:

1. No Congressional District or State at large Delegate or Alternate shall be allocated to any candidate who receives 20% or less of the vote in the Georgia Presidential Preference Primary.
2. No fractional Delegate or Alternate shall be allocated.
3. In each Congressional District, the three (3) Delegates and three (3) Alternates shall be allocated proportionally to candidate(s) receiving more than 20% of the vote based on the following:
 - (i) any candidate who receives the majority (50% +1) of the Congressional District's Presidential Preference Primary vote shall be allocated all three (3) of the Congressional District delegates and alternates;

(ii) if no candidate receives the majority (50% +1) of the Congressional District's Presidential Preference Primary vote, the candidate receiving the highest number of the Congressional District's Presidential Preference Primary votes shall be allocated two (2) delegates and two (2) alternates and the candidate receiving the second highest-number of the Congressional District's Presidential Preference Primary votes shall be allocated one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate. State Wide At large Delegates and Alternates shall be allocated by numerical slot to the candidate(s) receiving more than 20% of the vote based on his or her percentage of the Statewide Presidential Preference Primary vote. Any remaining Delegates and Alternates not allocated initially shall be apportioned sequentially and in order to candidate(s) receiving an initial allocation. For the purpose of this allocation, RNC Delegates (State Chairman, National Committee Woman and National Committee Man) shall be considered at large delegates and be allocated to the candidate receiving the largest percentage of the vote.

4. All Delegates and Alternates shall file a qualification oath as required by O.C.G.A. § 21-2-196.

(c) A District Convention may instruct, commit or pledge the Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention elected by it. However, no District Convention may instruct, commit or pledge the Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention so as to conflict with the provisions of the GA GOP Rules. This Rule applies to both nominations for President and Vice President of the United States.

(d) The election of delegates and alternates to a National Convention by a 14th District Convention shall be conducted in the following manner:

First, the entire report of the Nominating Committee shall be made. Then individual elections of the delegates shall be conducted, followed by individual elections of the alternates. In each election process the Nominating Committee's nominee shall be placed in nomination and then nominations for that position shall be accepted from the floor. If more than two candidates are nominated for the same position and no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, there shall be a run-off election between the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes. In each election, debate shall be permitted, but limited in the following manner. Each nominee shall be permitted to speak for not more than two (2) minutes; provided that if a nominee has spoken in one election, he or she shall not be permitted to speak as a nominee in any subsequent election. One nominating speech and one seconding speech for each person nominated shall be permitted, each such speech not to exceed two minutes. An alternate shall be elected and named for every delegate. Delegates and alternates shall not be paired. The delegates shall themselves by caucus on the convention floor and by majority vote decide which of the alternate delegates shall take the place of any missing delegates at the convention.

Section 7.03 TERMS OF OFFICE

(a) The terms of the members of the 14th District and the District Executive Committee who are elected at a convention shall begin immediately following the adjournment of the convention at which each was elected.

(b) The terms of other members of the 14th District and District Executive Committee shall begin upon the occurrence of the respective event which qualifies each for membership on the 14th District or District Executive Committee.

(c) Appointments by the Chairman expire with his term.

Section 7.04 REMOVAL OF DISTRICT MEMBERS

(a) Any District member (as defined by 2.06 (a), (b1) & (b3)), may be removed from office for cause by a vote of a two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum present at any duly called meeting of the G14CDRP; provided however, such individual must be given written notice of said meeting mailed or circulated by written electronic communication at least thirty-two (32) days in advance thereof, setting forth the grounds for removal, and be given an opportunity to be heard in person or by his representative. "Cause" as used herein shall include but not be limited to continued failure to perform his duties or conduct detrimental to the best interests of the 14th District, all as may be determined by the two-third (2/3) vote of a quorum of the 14th District.

(b) If a member of the 14th District shall publicly advocate the election of another candidate for an office for which the Republican Party has nominated a candidate, that member shall be removed from party office.

(c) As soon as a member qualifies to run for an elected public office he shall be deemed to have resigned.

(d) If any officer or member should fail to attend three (3) consecutive meetings of the 14th District, unless a proxy is sent, then that will constitute a resignation of his position on the 14th District and that position shall be declared vacant without the necessity of a vote by the 14th District.

Section 7.05 RESTRICTIONS ON ENDORSEMENTS BY 14TH DISTRICT OFFICIALS

Members of the District Executive Committee, the 14th District, and appointed 14th District Officials, shall not use their official title in any manner in connection with their support of, any candidate for the Republican nomination for any public office in the State of Georgia in primaries where there is at least one other Republican candidate.

Section 7.06 FILLING VACANCIES IN OFFICES ELECTED BY THE DISTRICT CONVENTION

(a) In the event of death, resignation, or removal from office of any elected State officer except District Chairman, the District Executive Committee shall elect a successor by a majority vote of a quorum present.

(b) In the event of a vacancy in the position of District Chairman, the First ViceChairman shall automatically serve as acting Chairman until the 14th District elects a Chairman.

(c) In the event of a vacancy in the position of Treasurer, the Assistant Treasurer shall automatically serve as acting Treasurer until the 14th District elects a Treasurer.

(d) In the event of a vacancy in the position of Secretary, the Assistant Secretary shall automatically serve as acting Secretary until the 14th District elects a Secretary.

(e) If any such vacancies are not filled within ninety (90) days after those vacancies occur, the District Executive Committee may fill such vacancies by a majority vote on its own motion.

(f) All written resignations are deemed to be effective upon notice. No vote to accept a resignation shall be required.

(g) In the event of the death or resignation of a member elected by a County Convention or County Committee, the County Committee shall fill such vacancy and shall notify the 14th District of its action according to the Notice Rules in writing within five (5) days after election. If such vacancy is not filled within ninety (90) days after it occurs, the 14th District may fill such vacancy by a Majority vote of a quorum present, on its own motion.

(h) The District Secretary shall notify the State Secretary at the GRP headquarters within five (5) days after the election.

Section 7.07 FILLING VACANCIES IN THE STATE COMMITTEE POSITIONS ELECTED BY THE DISTRICT CONVENTION

(a) In the event of the death, resignation, or extended failure to function of a State Committee member elected by a District Convention, the District Executive Committee shall fill such vacancy and shall notify the State Secretary at the GRP headquarters within five (5) days after the election.

(b) If such vacancy is not filled within ninety (90) days after it occurs, the State Executive Committee may fill such vacancy by a majority vote on its own motion.
